Live authentically. Montmorenci | Circa 1741. Built by Samuel Worthington. Commanding views overlooking Worthington Valley, Montmorenci is a storied estate steeped in history. Revel in the sense of arrival as you meander the tree-lined drive. The welcoming crunch of gravel in the roundabout as you step to enter. A grand living hall whets your appetite for what's to come. Feel the difference that balanced proportions and the layering of a timeless European aesthetic can make in your daily life. Original details intact. Exceptional handcrafted millwork lends grace and depth to generous, light-filled rooms designed for living and gathering. Relish the farm to table healthy lifestyle... vegetables and herbs teaming with flavor picked directly from your garden. The chef's kitchen invites connection, anchored by a fireplace and glorious views of the pond in the distance. Entertain effortlessly. Experience functionality and flow that has been meticulously designed for gatherings both intimate and large. A handsomely appointed library awaits your collected volumes and curiosities. A significant architectural, sculpted mahogany staircase rises with grace. The primary suite, sumptuous and rich in detail, opens to an expansive terrace with sweeping views, while the spa-like bath offers fireside soaks and a moment to exhale. Separate primary suite baths, each with its own distinctive personality and vista. Each secondary suite exudes exemplary style and unique character.

Flow through the multi-purpose loggia to the sweeping gardens and curated grounds, where nature delights at every turn. Glass doors reveal landscaped terraces, verdant gardens, and the serene rhythm of nature. Lounge poolside and imbibe beneath the cross vine covered pergola, take in the clear skies and stars above as the evening settles in. Invigorate with sunrise laps. Charming pool-house tucked beneath the loggia. A fabulous brick barn, substantial stone tenant house, two apartments, a repurposed corn crib, and three pristine paddocksâ€”cultivating a distinguished country lifestyle rooted in heritage. Comcast Internet. Cultivate your existence. The art of uniting human and home.
